Edison Students Hear Fred Schaus

Fred Schaus, coach of the Los Angeles Lakers, discussed professional basketball with sixth, seventh, and eighth grade boys at Edison Elementary School, last week.

Following a discussion of defensive play, Schaus showed film highlights of last year's Laker season. The Laker coach, whose team holds the title of Western Division Champs, described the routine of Laker players during basketball season and singled out how Elgin Baylor worked at making a comeback after suffering leg injuries last year.

"Baylor spent four to six hours a day, six days a week running, riding bicycles, lifting weights, skipping rope, and doing calisthenics to rehabilitate his leg," Schaus said. "It was one of the greatest comebacks I've seen in the history of sports."

Describing Jerry West as a skinny kid who weighs 158 pounds, Schaus said he first met Jerry in West Virginia in junior high school and he had the opportunity to watch his progress through high school, college and the Olympics.

"Although Jerry has been one of the five top men in pro basketball for the last five years," Schaus said, "he has the same humility he had as a kid."

Meisenzahl was runner-up to Sauer in the season opener and also won the semi-main event in his Buick V8 powered racer, Thomas was the number two driver in the Figure 8 points last season and was dueling Sauer for the lead two weeks ago, when they locked wheels and he had to drop out of action.

Besides the 20 lap feature, other racing planned for the Easter evening event include a pair of 12-lap semi-mains, four 10 lap heat races and a 6 lap trophy dash. All on the thrill filled Figure 8 track, where drivers cross each other's path twice a lap.

Following the evening's 20 lap feature a slam-bang 12 car Destruction Derby will be held as a special added attraction. Joe Drew of Lawndale, Lloyd Brooks of Gardena and Harry Noble of Wilmington will be the favorites in the first night Destruction Derby of the year.

Cerritos Unbeaten In Baseball

In baseball Cerritos has compiled one of the most remarkable junior college record in the history of the state.

This season they are undefeated after 21 games.

In Metropolitan Conference action the Falcons have not lost a contest in 28 outings, and last year won the title with an 18-0 record.

Their last defeat came in the finals of the Southern California playoffs to two-time state champion Mt. San Antonio College.

So far, the Falcons, going into Easter vacation, are 10-0 in conference play.

And yet, despite their great record, they are by no means a shoo-in to repeat as champions.

With eight games to play, El Camino's Warriors are only two games off the pace and when the Falcons come back from vacation, they have two rugged road games in a row—at East Los Angeles Friday, April 15, and at El Camino Tuesday, April 19.

Telecast of Laker Game Set Tonight

When the Los Angeles Lakers meet the St. Louis Hawks in the first out-of-town game of the NBA semi-finals tonight, KTTV will televise the event live over Channel 11.

The second game on Saturday will also be covered at the same time on Channel 11. Chick Hearn, the voice-of-the-Lakers, will call the play-by-play from St. Louis.
